Something for everyone.

The Church also offers peace and solitude and is always open during the day.

This year we have held 2 village exhibitions in the church alongside 2 very well supported cream tea afternoons. The most recent was only a couple of weeks ago when we hosted a VE day exhibition of village photos, accounts and memorabilia highlighted by a WW2 tank on the village green.

Regular weekly congregations are low but support for our major festivals is always high.

Harvest is always popular and of course Christmas. Easter must rank as the most important time in our Christian calendar, but this week sees Ascension Day and next week Whitson or Pentecost the traditional birthday of our Christian faith. I'm sure many people don't reflect on the
